A Bicentennial Salute to Plain Dealing, Louisiana

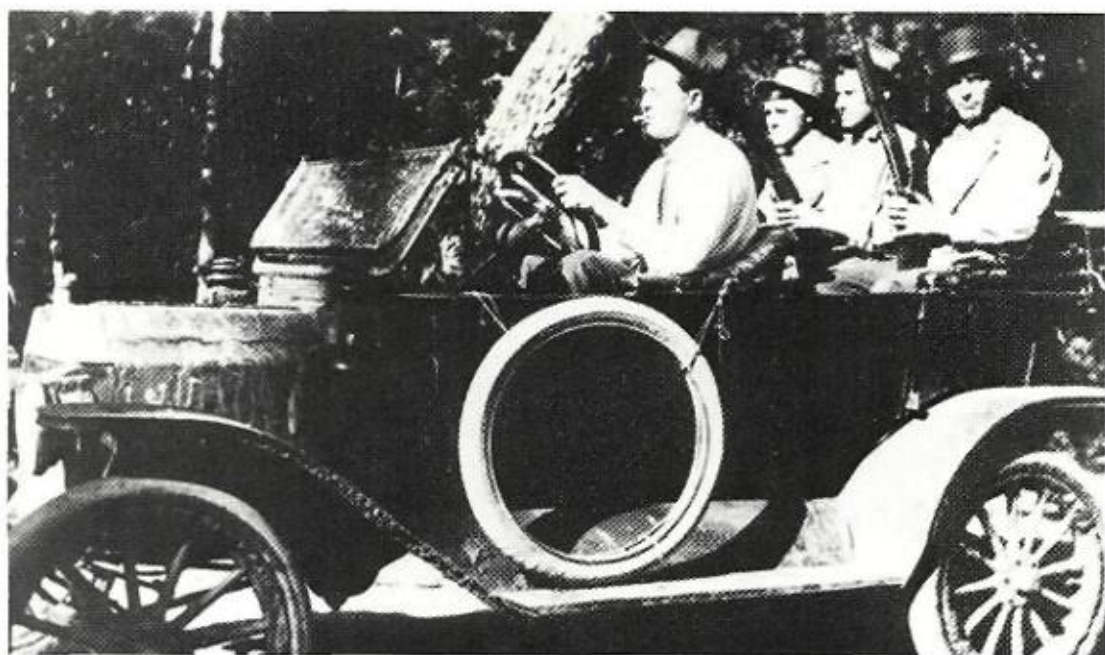

About the year 1840, George O. Gilmer and James Blair Gilmer purchased a vast area of land from the U.S. Government and established a plantation in what is now North Bossier Parish. Because of their belief in fair, honest dealings with their own employees and all others, they gave the plantation the name Plain Dealing.

The owners decided to establish a town on the new railroad which was being built through the area; consequently, on July 25, 1888, a public sale of lots was held and the village of Guernshine was born. The name was soon changed to Plain Dealing.

During June of 1890, the citizens adopted a charter incorporating an area two miles square. The charter was amended by a vote of 17 for and none against changing the size to 1¼ miles square during August, 1890. In 1927 the village of Plain Dealing advanced to the status of a town.

The economy of the town was for many years based upon agriculture with family farms lining every road leading into Plain Dealing. Changing times led to a cattle and forestry economy. These are now supplemented by manufacturing jobs in surrounding towns.

and Plain Dealing High School

A few months elapsed after the spring of 1888, before Mr. S. J. Zeigler, then representing the Gilmer property caused a very attractive school house to be built on top of "the hill." This building was named the Pioneer High School.

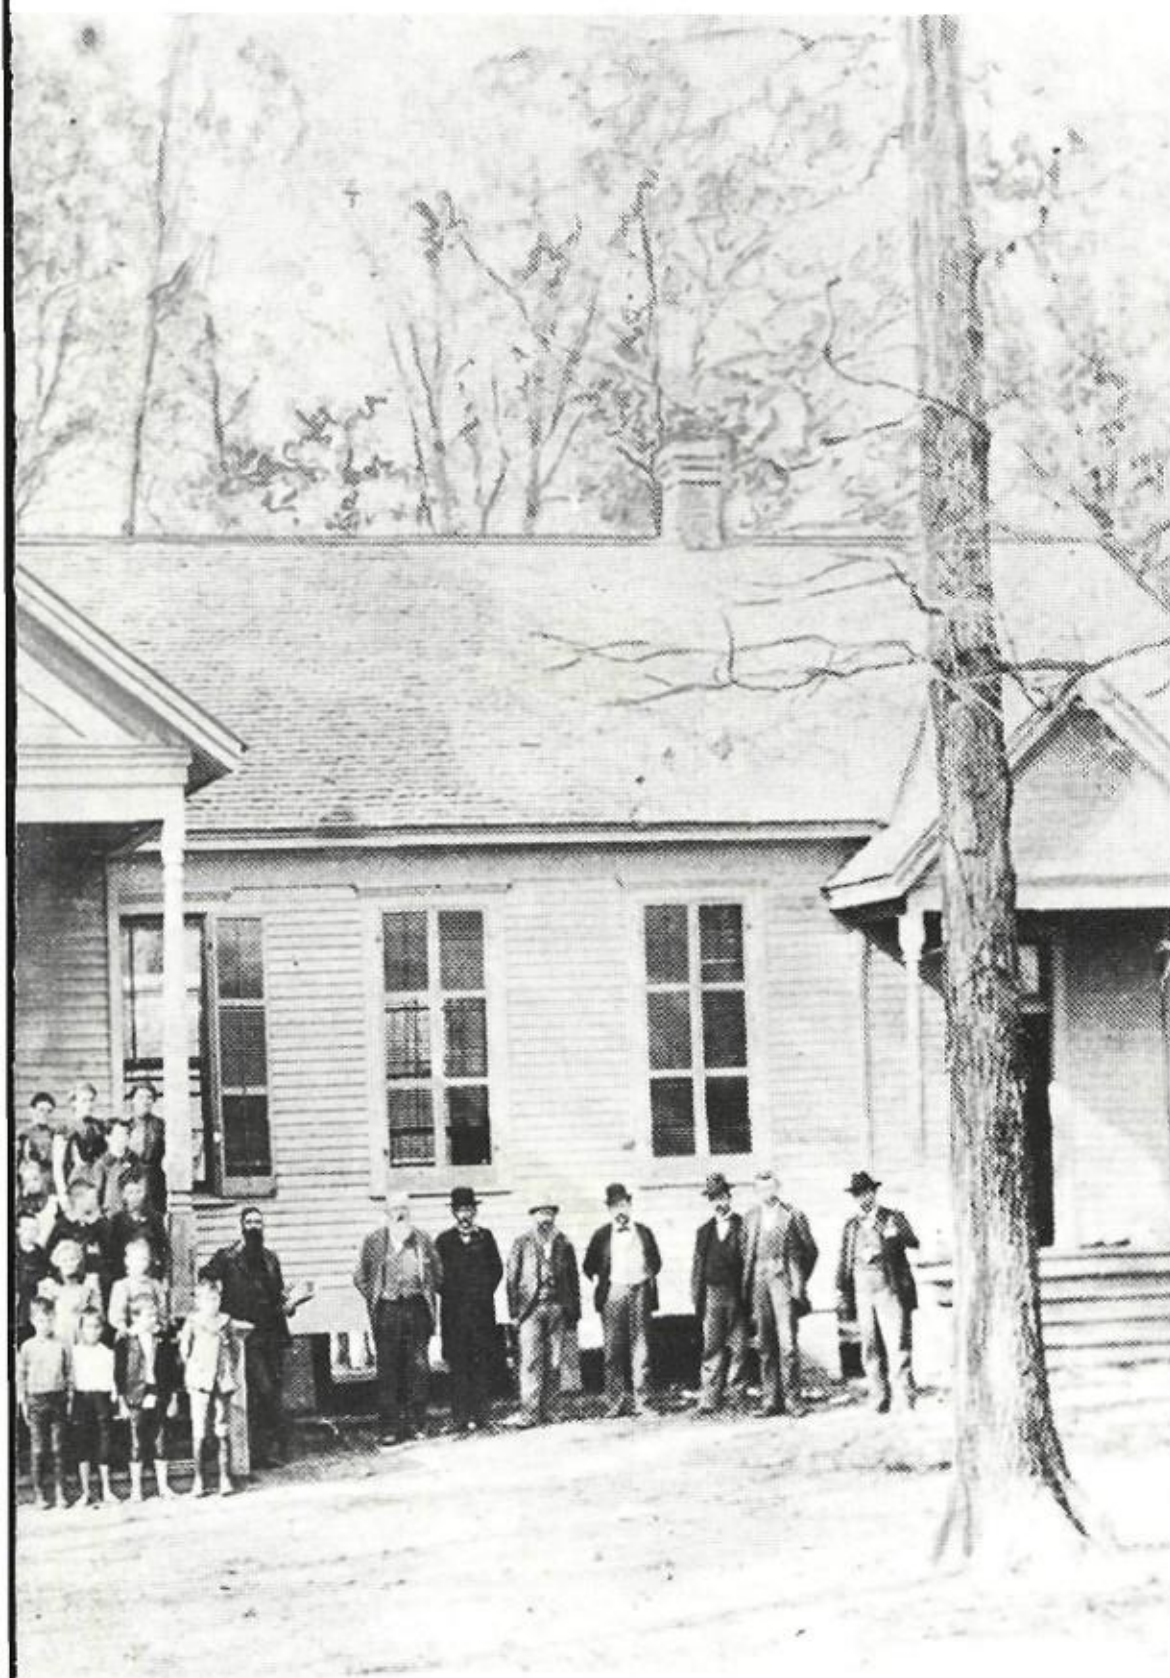

This school was completed in December of 1888, the cornerstone having been previously laid by the Masonic order of Plain Dealing. The school opened the following spring with an attendance of 14 pupils.

In 1907 four rooms were annexed to the little one room school, since the enrollment was increasing rapidly. Mr. Staples, an assistant teacher, in 1911 organized a girls' basketball team.

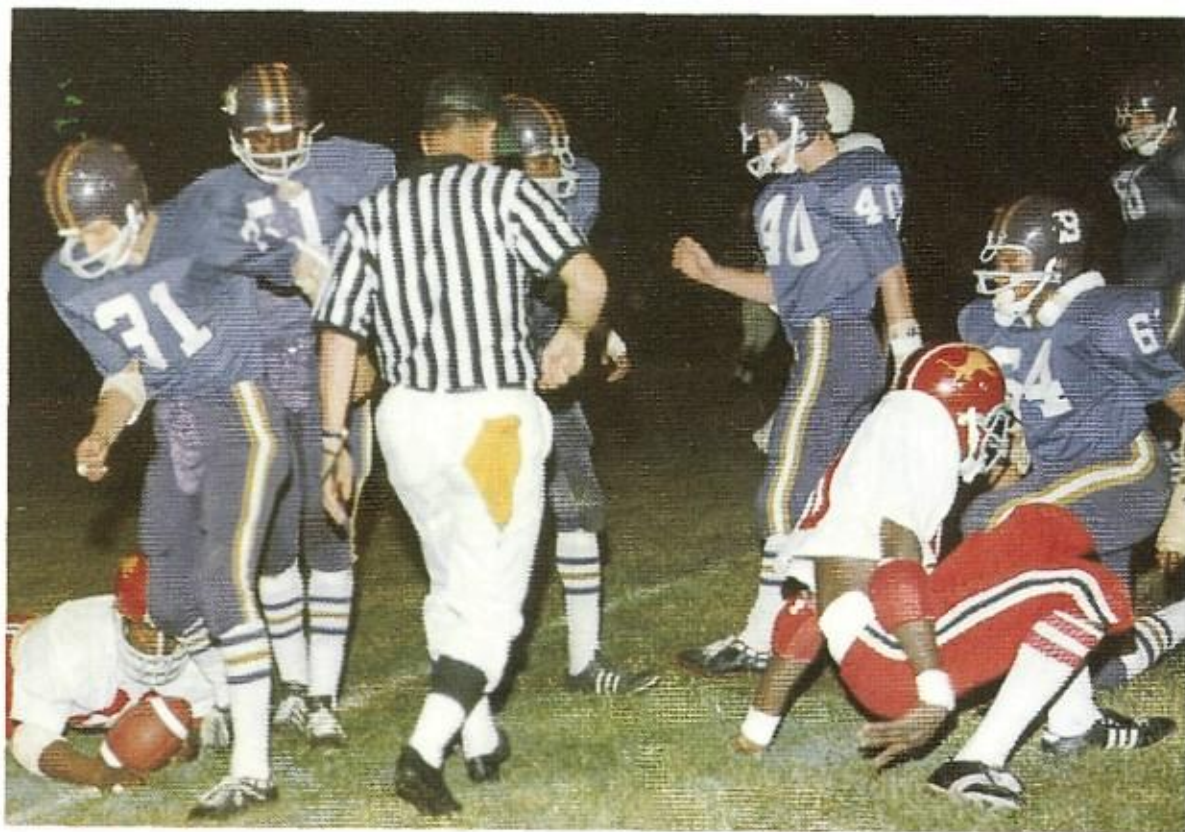

In 1920 a new brick building was started and completed in time for the graduation exercises for the class of 1921.

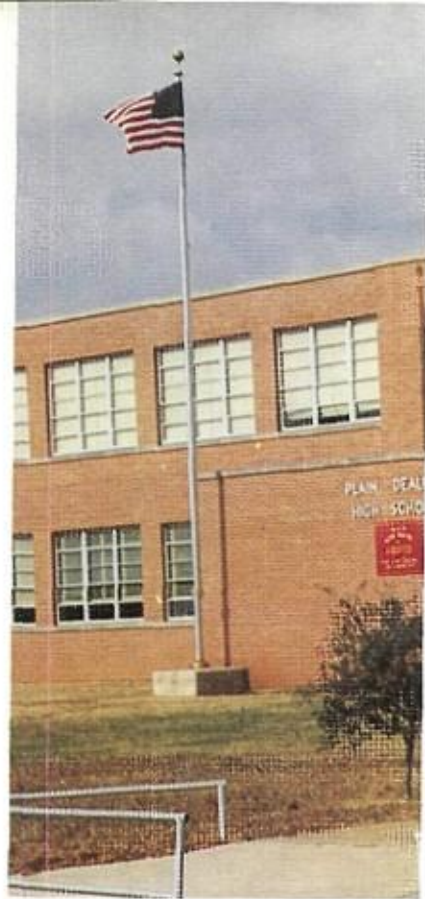

On February 16, 1963, the high school building burned as a result of defective wiring. A new high school was begun in the fall of 1963. The new building was completed in August, 1964, in time to be occupied for the fall term.

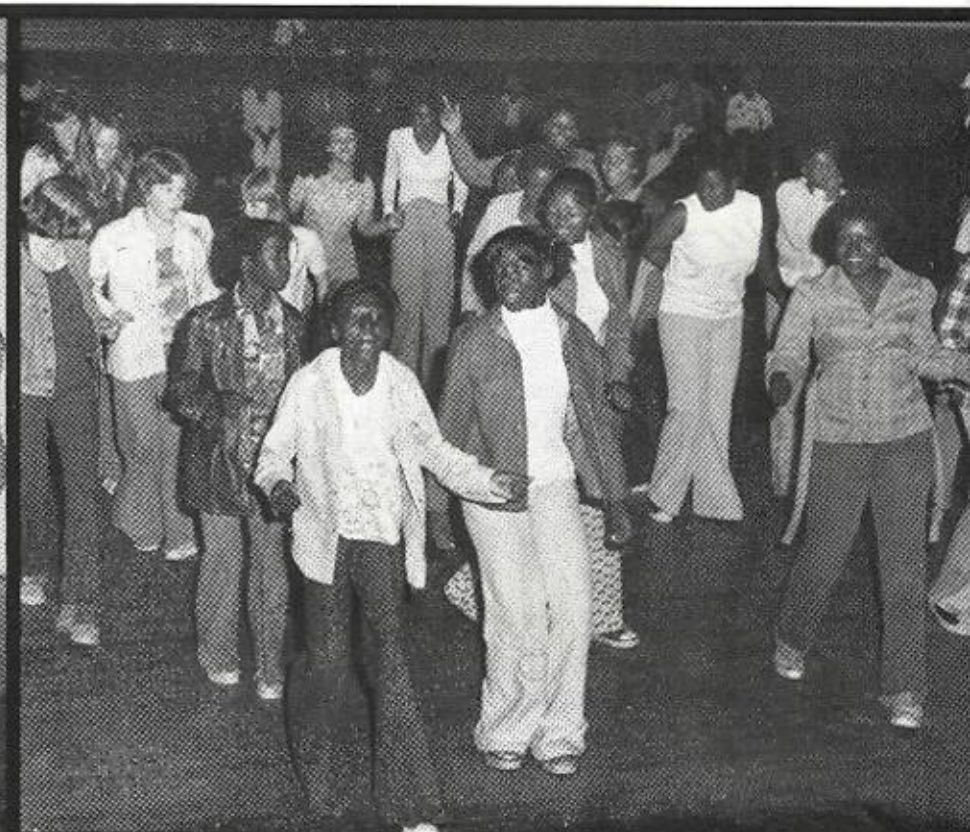

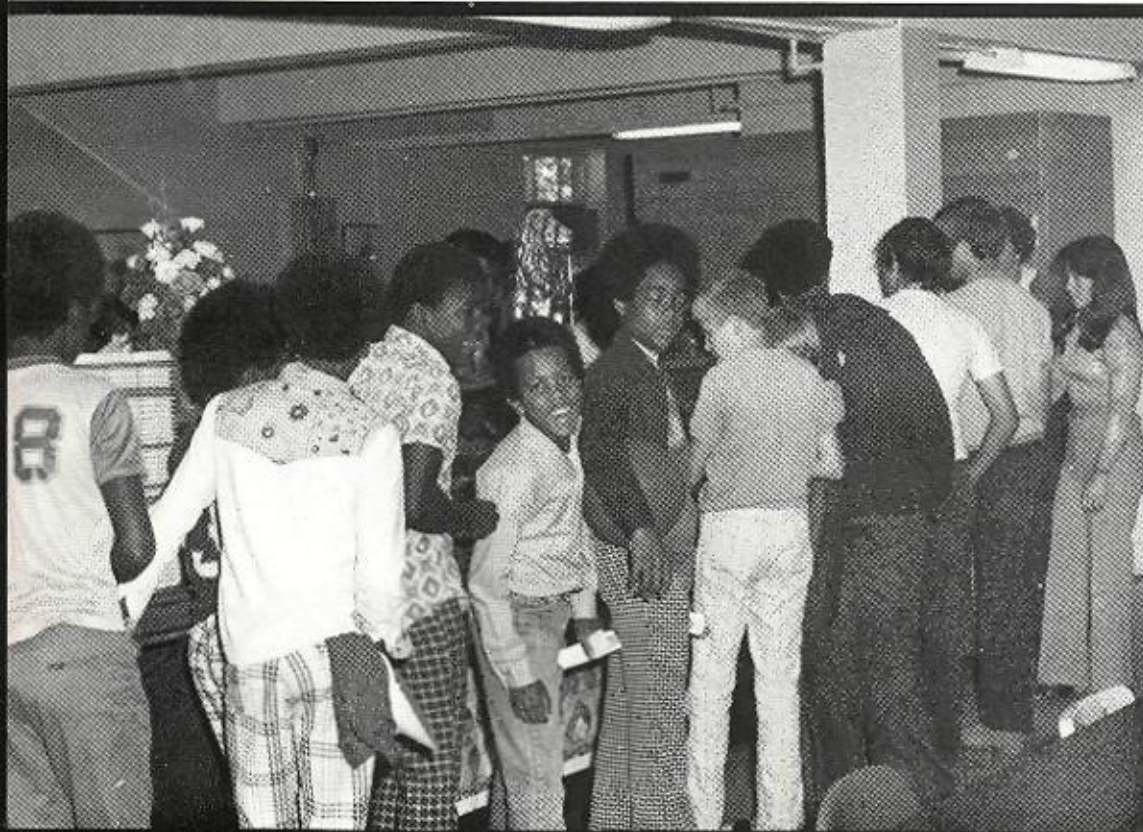

During the summer months of 1964 demolition of the oldest building on the campus (built in 1920) took place, and a new elementary building was erected during the fall and winter months of 1964-65, ready for the 1965-66 season.

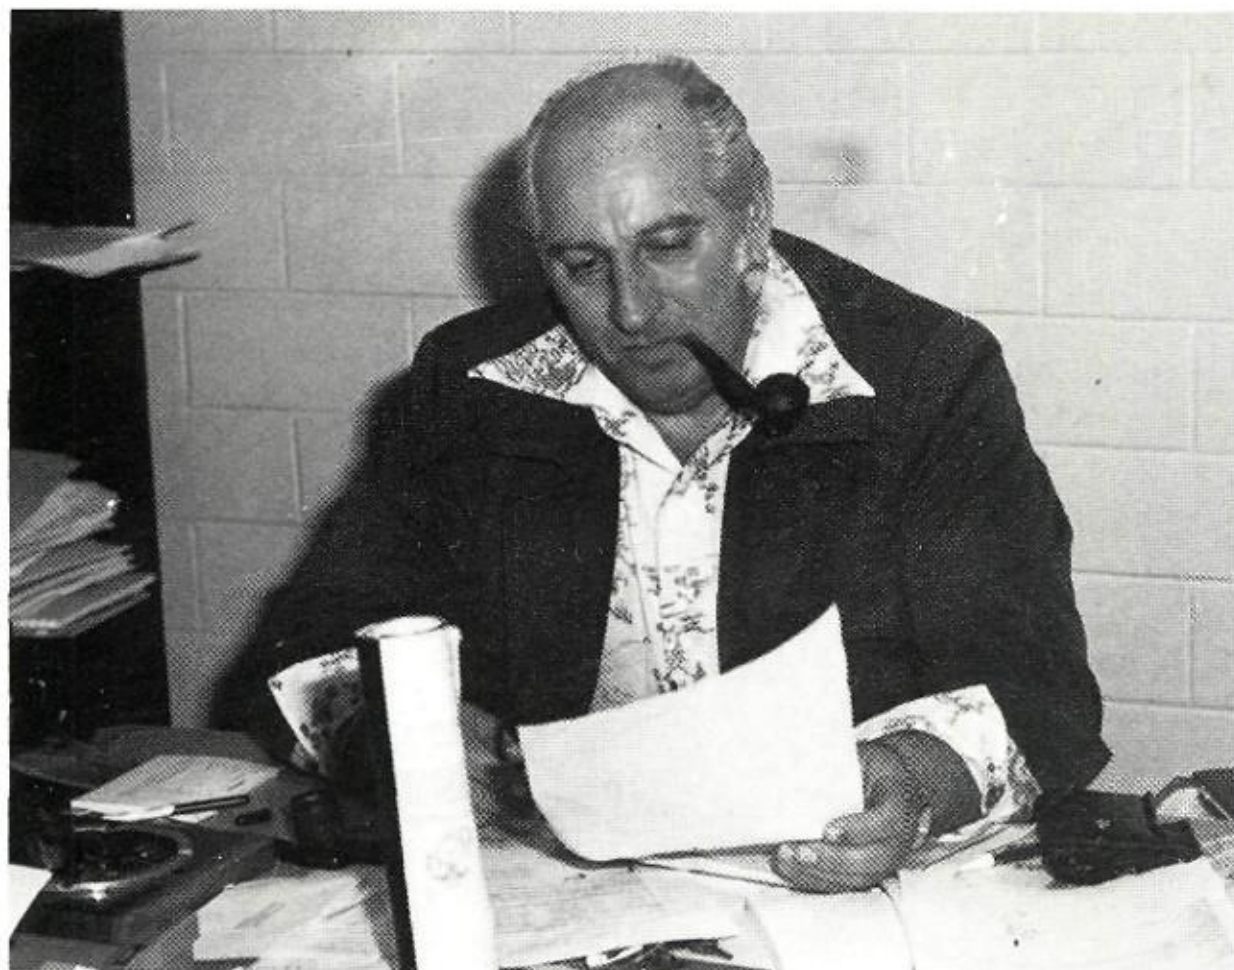

The sights and sounds of 1976 are silent, but the thrills and excitements will live on forever.

An appropriate philosophy for education can be attributed to a Chinese Proverb "Give a hungry man a fish and he will eat one meal, teach him how to fish and he will eat the rest of his life."

- Col. Paul James
Principal

I prefer to believe that each year of life grows better than that which has preceded it. We must have this hope - that each day there is a new challenge, a new cause to pursue, something new to reach out to.

Counselor

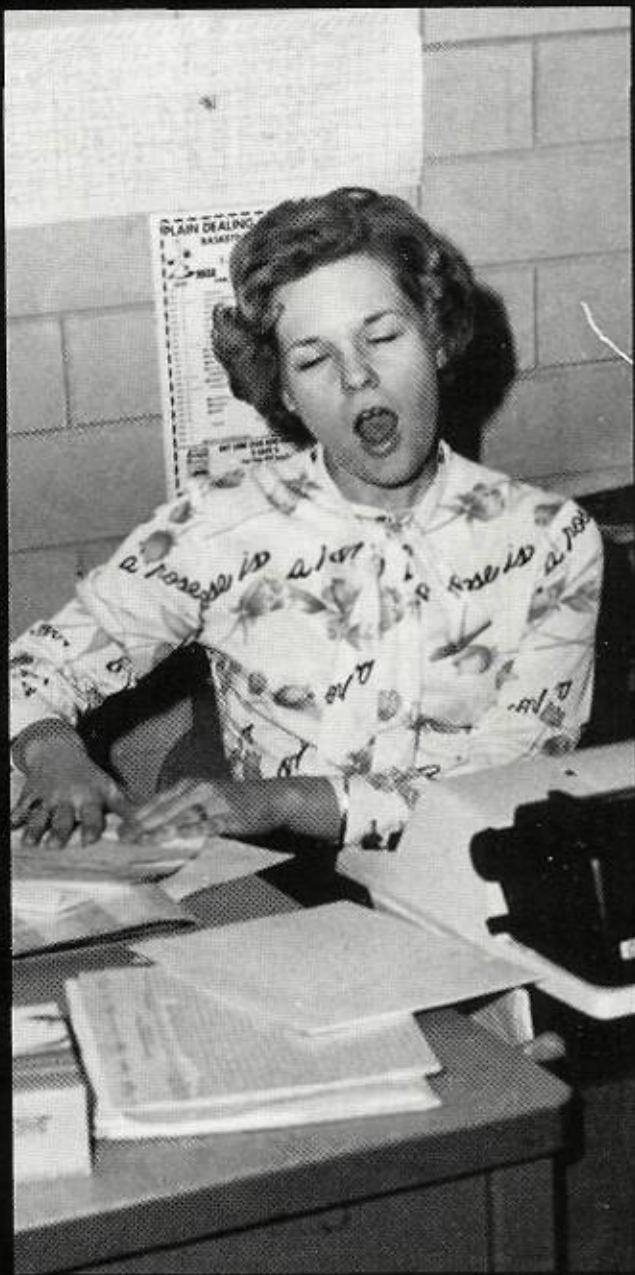

Kindness, Encouragement, Compassion, Courtesy - To others these cost nothing to give, but so often we are too conservative.

Band

Our band participated in more events this year than at any time in the last eight years. We attended two district festivals, marched in six parades, and gave over a dozen full concerts throughout the year. Our band firmly established itself this year and people in our town and across the parish have been impressed and excited with the progress of our band.

We're proud of our "Marching Lions."

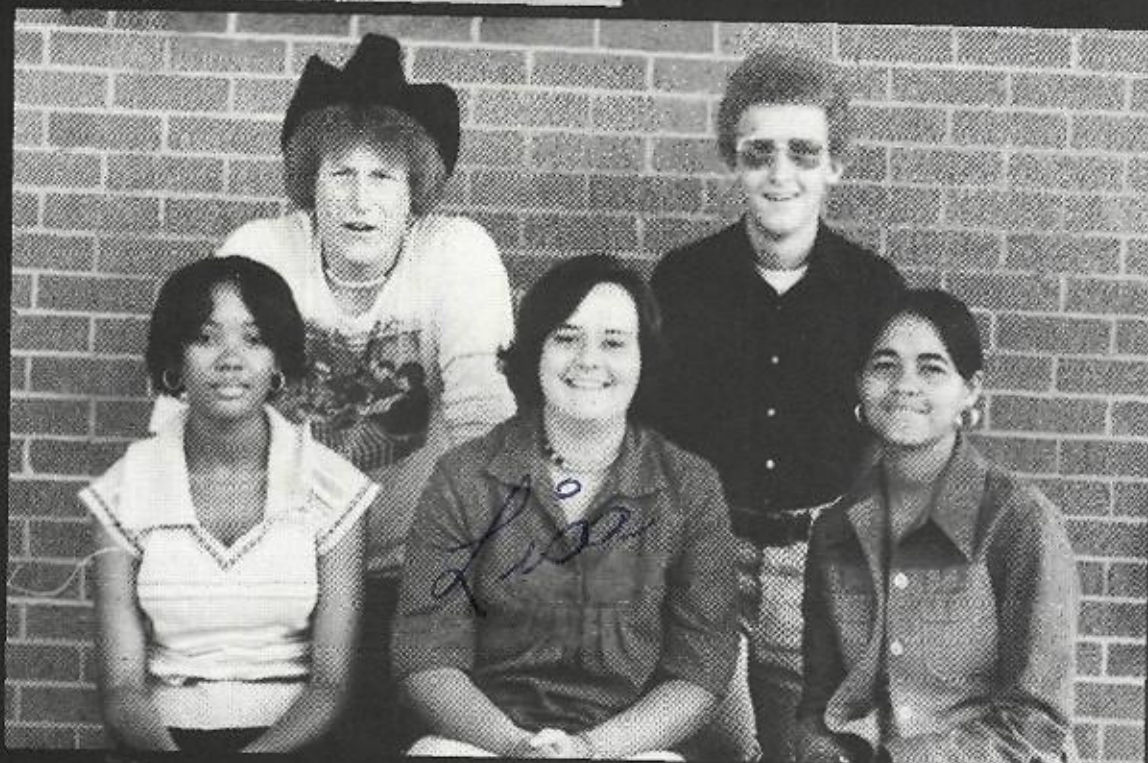

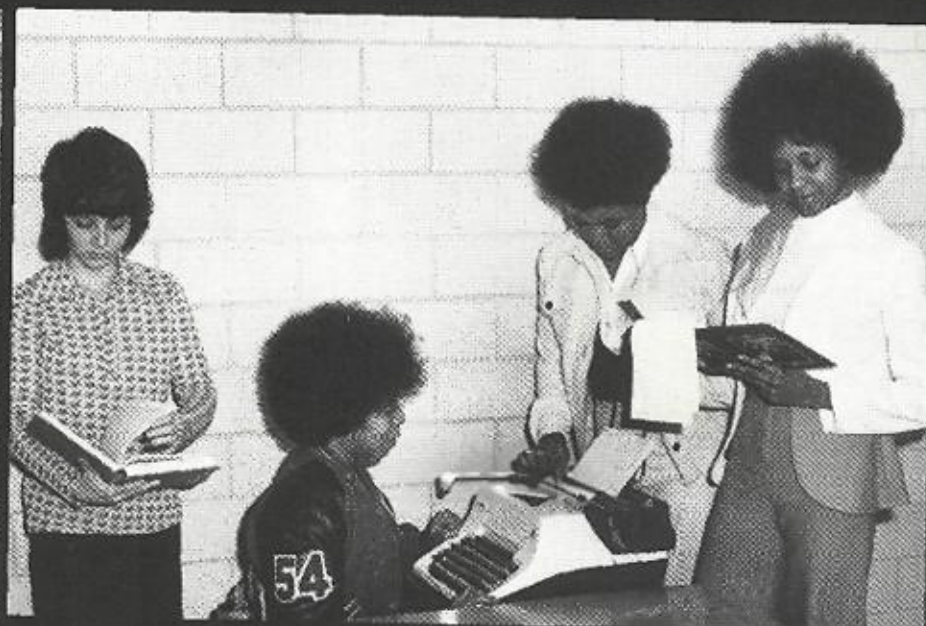

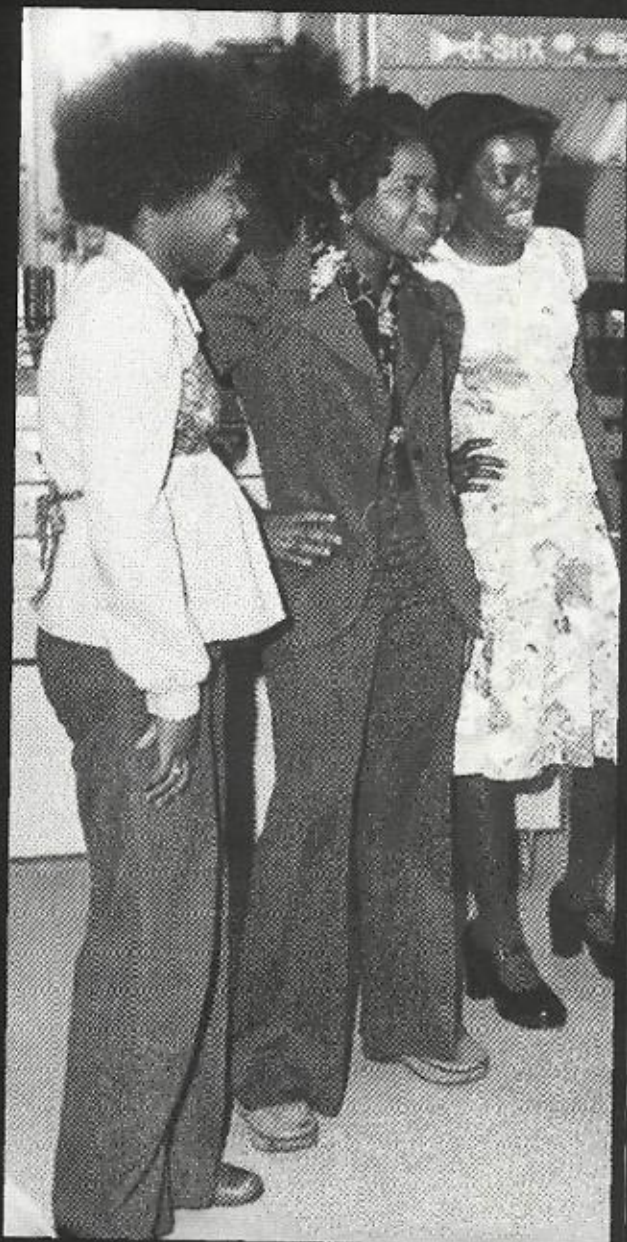

Choir

This was really our first year to establish our music class as a choir. They made tremendous stride this year and were a credit to our school in all performances.

AuRoarer Staff

Putting out a quality yearbook is not an easy task, but the 1976 AuRoarer staff has done its best to work together and produce your yearbook.

The yearbook staff has worked hard selling ads and candy so that the cost of the yearbook is not passed on to you. The number of pages has been increased yet the price has remained the same.

With your help the yearbook staff can continue to make your yearbook bigger and better.

Thank you students and staff.

Mrs. Hanson
Advisor

Lion's Tale Staff

The 1975-76 Lion's Tale Staff was the largest in the history of Plain Dealing High School. The members of the staff received national acclaim through publications that were printed throughout the United States. P.D.H.S. was published in the international publication, "THE QUILL AND SCROLL." The club has also sponsored the induction of twelve students into the honorary organization, The Quill and Scroll.

Many Lion's Talers aided in sending articles to over thirty newspapers throughout the Ark-La-Tex.

Loretta Moore and Gayla McKenzie were awarded special honors for their outstanding achievement in the field of journalism. Gayla is now a member of the Shreveport Journal writing staff as fruits of the year's efforts.

The second annual publication banquet was an appropriate ending for a successful year of journalism.

CODAC

At the beginning of the school year about 20 students were chosen for CODAC (Community Organization for Drug Abuse Control). These people became counselors with the task of informing growing children and young people about the effects of drugs in their environment. They taught lessons to students in the 5th and 6th grades at the elementary school. Their program, with the help of Darryle Barksdale, advisor, and Annette Lee, sponsor, was a great success.

Student Council

The student council at P.D.H.S. was extremely active this year. They earned funds by conducting the Friday noon Jam Sessions. The money was used to purchase six cement benches for the campus in addition to the new United States and Louisiana flags for the flag pole in front of the school. They provided a new flag staff for the auditorium, also. During the year the members served well as spokesmen for the student body to the principal.

Literary Club

The Junior High Literature Club got off to a good start at the beginning of the 1975-76 school year. During that time they have published four magazines and have taken a trip to the theater to see a movie. For the first year of organization, they have made much progress. Next year the club plans to expand to include both junior high and high school students.

Library Club

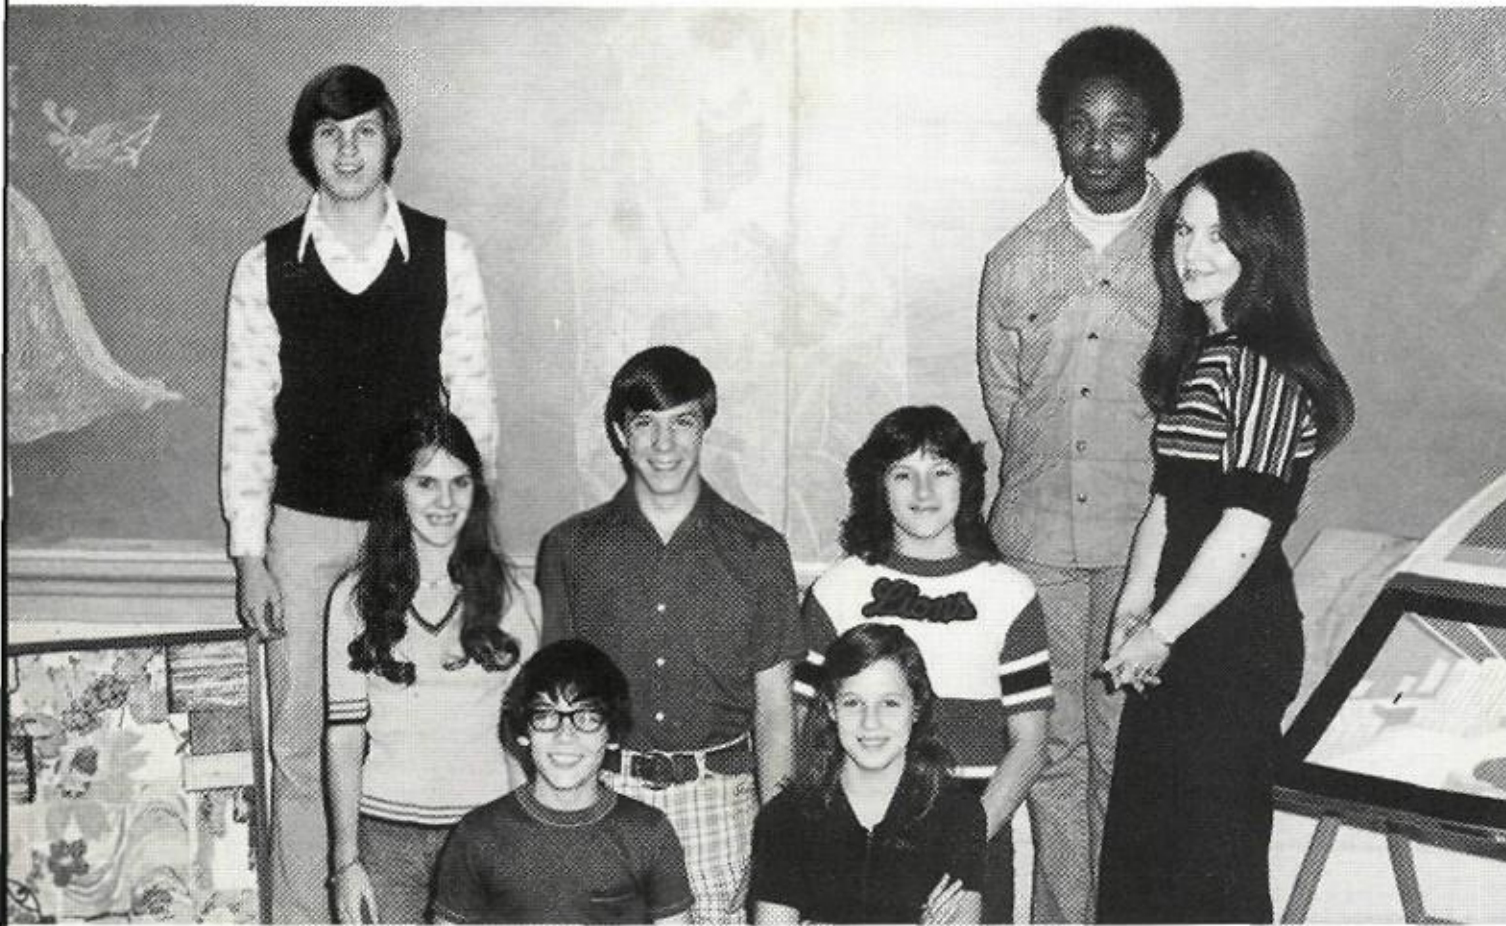

The Library Club is composed of people who are interested in work in the library. This year under the leadership of Lilly V. Humphries, the librarian, they sponsored the second annual Book Fair. The student librarians worked hard to set up attractive displays for those students interested in purchasing books in all subject areas. The Book Fair was a great success.

Art Club Celebrates Bicentennial

The Plain Dealing High School Art Club has had a busy year. To help celebrate the bicentennial, they literally painted the town - red, white, and blue. Bad weather got them off to a slow start, but their project for painting all the fire hydrants in town finally got underway. Other projects this year have included making macrame and leather I.D. bracelets.

The Art Club may have been small in number, but Dana Thomas, Sharon Stiles, Kenny Moore, Donna Trexler, Dannie Perkins, Jody Allen, Gina Thomas, Clement Douglas, and Sponsor Karen Waits have worked hard and produced much for the Art Club.

4-H Sponsors Our Most Beautiful Girl Pageant

The 1975-76 4-H Club has been very active this year. They sponsored the 2nd annual Our Most Beautiful Girl Pageant at P.D.H.S. They also decorated the stage for the annual Plain Dealing Dogwood Pageant. Several members of the 4-H have won various awards for their outstanding contributions to 4-H and the community. This has been a very successful year for the 4-H.

Bits and Pieces

A Night at the Carnival

On October 30, 1975, the Student Council and the Plain Dealing Jaycees sponsored a Halloween Carnival. First, the students passed through the eerie halls of the Jaycee Haunted House. Then, when they entered the Carnival, a Paper Staff photographer might have snapped their picture in the mouth of JAWS. If anyone wanted to see how good a basketball player he was, the Basketball Girls supplied everything he needed. If he just wanted to jump around, the Cheerleaders sponsored a trampoline. The Annual Staff and the FHA supplied something for all to eat. We all went home full and happy from a night at the carnival.

High School Beauties

On December 18, 1975, the Plain Dealing High School 4-H Club sponsored the "Our Most Beautiful Girl" pageant. Many of Plain Dealing High's beautiful girls vied for the title. The girls were sponsored by clubs and friends. Miss Becky Wilson the reigning "Miss Louisiana" was our Mistress of Ceremonies. Mr. Farland Bottoms, Miss Donna Brown, Miss Carla Lewis, and Miss Wilson provided the entertainment. The girls selected Miss Cindy Gleason as Miss Congeniality for the High School and Miss Karen McKenzie as Miss Congeniality for the Junior High.

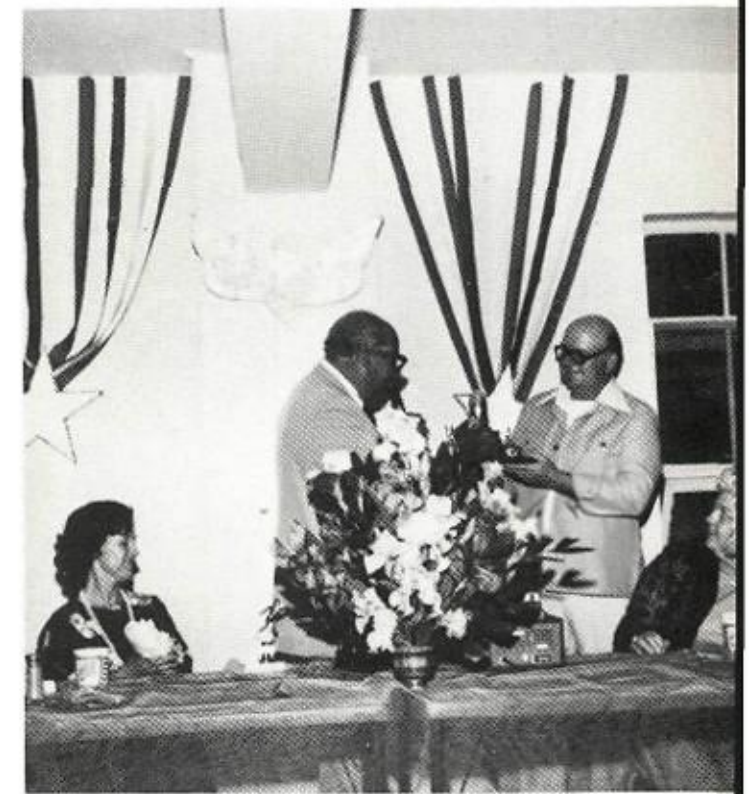

Junior High Beauties

Awards Banquet

On April 23 the following awards were presented at the P.D.H.S. annual awards banquet: Sherry Carter and Loretta Wilson were outstanding players for Girls' Basketball. Scot Payne received outstanding player for tennis. In Baseball, Steve Norton received highest batting average of 471. Steve Norton and O. T. Murray were awarded All-District for first string. Randy Robinson received All-District for second string. The whole team was elected Outstanding Player. Lavon James received Outstanding player for track. In Football, Archie Perkins, Steve Norton, Blake Player, Lavon James, Tyrone Pay-singer, Clyde Haskins all received Outstanding Player. Leading Scorer with 23 pts. average was Donnie Long. Leading Rebounder was Leonard Martin with an average of 15.8. Steve Norton and Melody Venable were awarded "Mr. and Miss P.D.H.S. Band." Charlesetta Ford and Steve Norton were both awarded Who's Who Among High School Music Students.

Did you ever see me this solemn?

Melodramas

On March 26 PDHS Dogwood Players presented three Melodramas. The following awards were given: BEST ACTORS - Steve Norton, Caiaphas Willis, Fred Haling. BEST ACTRESSES - Angie Cox, Nadine Rawls, Tammy Wilson. BEST CHARACTER PORTRAYAL - Ray Webb, Lisa Peterson, Gayla McKenzie, Debra Clay. A special award was given to Tracey Collins. Tracey received the leading roll before she moved and became a student at Stonewall High School. She still attended rehearsals and did a magnificent job portraying her character. Others included in the plays were Karen McKenzie, Beth Carter, Donna Finley, Peggy Green, Darla Allen, Mark Adams, Richard St. Claire, Tommy Merrill, Kay Finch, Donna Trexler, Scot Payne, Kenny Moore, Sharen Speer, Sharon Stiles, Caren Souter, Loretta Ford, Marilyn Player, Dannie Perkins, Tracy Davis, Ricky Haskins.

. . . Lions Kept Spirit

The 1975-76 season of the Plain Dealing High School fighting Lions was very disappointing mainly because of the fact that the Lions moved up to Class AA. The Lions competed against very stiff competition and ended the year with a 2-7 season. Many coaches throughout the district had praise for the team as being "gutsy" and sticking in there.

One important highlight of the season was the fighting spirit of the Lions as they almost pulled off an upset victory over District Champ Haynesville. The Golden Tornadoes finally nudged by the Lions by a score of 14-6. All in all, the Lions should be proud of their first season in District 1-AA.

Moving up to Double A this year has been a real test for the sports at Plain Dealing High School. Our junior high team has worked hard and gained experience from the year. They have done their best winning two, tying one, and losing three games. Experience, hard work, and resolutions to do better are already in the air for next year.

Love ya!

Miss Wai to,

I know you've had a rough time with the cheerleaders in the past but some of the memories were worth all the hassle. A smile is worth a thousand tears. Like that workshop me + you + Donna went to when we had a little accident and the meetings and practices. You always kept your cool. And Art II was really fun. Me + Co nearly drove you crazy. It was all so fun! And not only did you show me a lot of fun, you stood by me when I was right and helped me when I was wrong and taught me to get going when the going gets rough. Not give up, stand up. Thank-you so much for your dedication, devotion, and love. Never forget Bobby M. or Clifford Y. or Baby Coon or Big Black Sambo { Sixth period reading }. Good luck and God Bless you. Love always.

So does

I didn't get to know you very good. But the times we spent together I found that you were a very loving person. The squad gave you a hard times. But I really hated to see you leave. Camp was really hard. I don't know really what happen but one thing for sure we all got our feelings out in the open. I hope for little incident that your feelings didn't change. I hope you still like me cause I really do like you. I hope we can always be friends. If I got a problem & need a shoulder I think you'll be there. Keep Sweet & Always Remember Me.
